NEWSLETTER

Navigator's Rants: This past week we celebrated Independence Day, the day our forefathers declared independence from Britain on July 4, 1776; but our country's battle for freedom continued for seven more years. Even though they declared our country's freedom, they had to stand and fight for many years before the British would accept and recognize the United States of America. Once our forefathers signed the Declaration of Independence, they read it aloud in public and published it in the newspaper to declare their beliefs and spread their ideals, even though they were in the midst of a battle.

As we have watched the events in our country the last few days, we have entered deeper into a new battle. Lives continue to be taken by the enemy, born and unborn. It is time for us to be like our forefathers and declare our Christian beliefs and join the battle to end the loss of innocent lives in our country. We need to model for others what Jesus declared for all to follow:

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind; and, Love your neighbor as yourself." – Luke 10:27

If we model and proclaim this belief in our daily lives, despite the midst of the civil unrest in our country, we can spread our beliefs and Faith to help all lives find peace and independence in our country.

*"Like a small boat on the ocean
Sending big waves into motion
Like how a single word can make a heart open
I might only have one match but I can make an explosion"* – "Fight Song" by Rachel Patten

One person can make a difference, and a united group of Christians can transform our country into one that values and respects all lives, from conception to natural death. The time to stand up and fight for our country is upon us. It is our Christian duty to fight for our freedom again in our country. I hope you will join me in this battle.
